

ORDINANCE NO. 22.

An ordinance relating to vagrancy, prescribing the duties of the marshal in relation thereto, and a punishment therefor.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the City of Payette;

Section I. All persons who have no visible means of living or lawful occupation or employment by which to earn a living, all healthy persons who shall be found begging their means of support, all persons who habitually roam about the streets of the city without any lawful business, all persons having no occupation or business, who shall be found about the streets or public places of the city, shall be deemed vagrants.

Section II. It shall be the duty of the marshal, either on his own knowledge, information or belief, or upon sworn complaint of any citizen, to arrest any person who is a vagrant as defined in section one of this ordinance, and to bring him before the police magistrate of said city, and thereafter such proceedings shall be had, as in trial upon other charges for violation of ordinances, and if on such trial it shall be made to appear that such person is a vagrant as defined in <sup>said</sup> section one, such person shall be punished by fine in any sum not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding fifty days, or both, such fine and imprisonment.

Section III. All ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Passed and approved this 9 day of Apr 1933

J. M. Satoris

Mayor.
